

About Daryle

My name is Daryle M. Syck Ronning. I am a native of Pike County Kentucky and have been practicing law in Pikeville since 2006.

I attended Johns Creek and Mullins High Schools and graduated in 1980. I graduated from Pikeville College in 1986 with a BBA in Management. I also studied Paralegal Science at Eastern Kentucky University. After leaving ECU, I returned to Pikeville where I worked as a Paralegal for 17 years. In 2003, I attended the Appalachian School of Law and graduated with a Juris Doctor in 2006. I have also completed the Attorney as Problem Solver Certification Program in Mediation at the Appalachian School of Law.

I am a member of NACBA – National Association of Consumer Bankruptcy Attorneys, the Kentucky Bar Association, the Pikeville College Alumni Board of Directors, the Sandy Valley Child Advocacy Center and the First Presbyterian Church in Pikeville.

I currently reside in Pikeville, Kentucky with my husband Les.
